

University of Florida
Aquatic Animal Health Program
Certificate Application

Due Date: March 31st annually

Please provide the following documentation:

- This application sheet with the below information filled out along with timeline,
- a cover letter with statement of career goals relevant to aquatic animal health (where do you see yourself in 10 yrs and how will this certificate be applicable),
- if you plan to conduct a research project please provide any details of what you may study and who you may want to work with,
- a curriculum vitae (CV),
- an unofficial copy of your transcripts and
- an estimated timeline of the classes you will take to fulfill your 15 credits (see Excel file on our AAH website).

Date:

Name:

UF ID number:

Expected year of graduation:

Advisor:

Contact Information (mailing address, phone # & e-mail):

Florida residency classification (circle one):

- Florida resident
- Out of State resident
- Became Florida resident to attend UF-CVM

When and how did you first learn about this certificate (circle one)?

- Before VMCAS application submission
- During interview at UF
- During orientation
- Other _____

How significantly did the Aquatic Animal Health Program play a role in you choosing UF-CVM (circle one)?

- Significantly Impacted
- Impacted
- Neutral
- Not at all

The above information is due by 4:30 on March 31st or the following business day, if the date falls on a weekend or holiday. Please send to:

Dr. Iske Larkin
CVM, LACS PO Box 100136
2015 SW 16th Ave
Gainesville, Florida 32610

Phone: 352-294-4095
Cell: 352-494-1742
E-mail: IVLarkin@ufl.edu

Once your application is received, please allow 2-3 weeks for processing and responses to be sent out.

Timeline

Please include a copy of the Excel file located on our AAH website under the AAM application.

This is just an estimated timeline of what you think you may take to earn your 15 credits for the certificate. It is understood that this may change as you progress through your DVM curriculum.